RACE TRACK, BRIGHTON REACH July 17 .- When the crowd arrived at the track to-day a thick mist was rolling in from the ocean. Many caustic comments were made by the spectators as they placed down their bets. It is hard enough to guess when the weather i clear, but when the fog shuts the horses from view, betters are kept on the anxious seat until they appear again. Nevertheless, the crowd kept the bookles busy in the ring, and when the result of the first race was known, it was agreed that it had been run pretty true to form, Judge A. S. Post and John Hanning acted as patrol judges. Mary S. was favorite, and she won from Blue Garter, who was quoted at a long price. His Sheepshead form was evidently overlooked. Connors was a close third.

The second race was also run in the fog. His Grace proved the winner, which was a most remarkable happening. The only way his victory can be explained, is that the fog puzzled him that he forgot all about sulking went at top speed cut. He won easily from Half Mine be second choice. Jersey Belle, the ho vorite, was third. The latter carried Hichael Dwyer's money, and, as usual spectators were enabled to view third event from start to finish, ige, Tancred and South Side were 5. Tancred and South Side were ily played, the former going to the a hot favorite. Tinge made a show is field.
